

Linda Aman - Aman Arts
Artist and Instructor
www.amanarts.com

Linda Aman is a prize-winning artist and instructor teaching throughout the United States. Her work is displayed and sold in corporate settings, galleries and shows. She is a distinguished merit member of the Idaho Watercolor Society, Western Federation Watercolor Society, Watercolor Society of Oregon, Gallery 12, Oregon Society of Artists, Nampa Art Guild, Idaho Art Museum, ISEA, Idaho Falls Art Council, Art Expressions and other professional art groups. She recently completed an artist in residence in Yellowstone National Park. She has taught over 3000 adults in the arts.

Linda creates work that tells a story with emotion interpreting the beauty she sees and capturing the essence of nature. Linda works with various materials - watercolor, oil and cold wax, encaustic, acrylic and mixed media in unique ways to awaken the sense of discovery.

Linda's goals include educating her students and the general public through speaking engagements, studio interactions, articles, teaching and mentoring. She believes the creative process is best appreciated and enhanced as the public interacts with working artists.
